The college youth with athletic tendencies had an outing in Los Angeles yesterday, and it was evident that the prospect to have it generally known that the athletic part of the college curriculum is doing very well indeed, thank you.

Crowds of young men, decked out with gaily-colored sashes, carrying canes on which were suspended flags and bay branches of boning, began to throng the streets of the city early in the day, and at opportune and inopportune moments delivered themselves of the un-splashing, blood-curdling college yell with all the trills and fringes that go to make up the gossamer article.

Pomona and Chaffey people, to the number of several hundred, were in attendance at the field day yesterday, and were in no way reticent in rooting for their representatives on the field.

Athletic Park was the scene of battle, and thither the college boys flocked, accompanied by a large contingent of local sportsmen. By 1 o'clock the grandstand was jammed to overflowing with spectators, while the bleachers were almost as thoroughly occupied with enthusiasts. In fact, the man who was not an enthusiast neglected to attend the field day yesterday, and was conspicuous solely by his absence. The jolly, reckless spirit of the young collegians was contagious, and ordinarily mild and sober persons found themselves carried along with a whirlwind of enthusiasm that drove out thoughts of propriety, and rendered one oblivious to the spectacle that one made of himself while he waved his hat, stamped his feet and yelled at the top of his voice. In union with the boys from the University of Southern California, and Chaffey and Pomona colleges.

Viewed from the field the grandstand was a mass of gurgulous color, for the intermingling of Chaffey's olive, green and gold, Pomona's blue and white and the University's crimson, made a panorama of vivacious beauty that was rendered even more attractive by the many feminine faces, which lightened with joy when a favorite made a spectacular record in any of the day's events.

The horns were ubiquitous, and ranged from the island's HAY TRUMPET to the mighty tuba that belabored forth in seasons long the accompaniment to the different college "yells."

These yells deserve separate and special description. They represent the outburst of unbridled enthusiasm, joy, anxiety and several other virtues that find lodgment in the breast of the college boy on the afternoon of the annual intercollegiate field day. The "yells" rose and sank, as victory stood perched on the banners of the different colleges, and they swelled to a mighty volume of sound when an unusually good bit of work was done, or a long-undisturbed record broken by some ambitious athlete. The different officers of the day fitted about the smooth oval and showed the independence of their selection by the expectant way in which the day's program was carried out by them. Several of the "best present cops" lost grace and dignity to the assembly, and displayed unusual diligence in seeing that no windpipes were fractured by the yelling students, or suicides committed by the ambitious athletes who were ready to strain every nerve in the attempt at beating the man opposed to them.

The 100-yard dash was the first event on the card. There were entered for the race, Francis (Chaffey), Nance (Pomona) and Leland (U. S. C.) The best previous record for this race was 20 1/2. It was won yesterday by Nance, time 12.

The entries for the 150-yard dash put were, L. M. Tolman (Pomona), Hansen (U. S. C.) and Apton (Chaffey.) The best record made in the previous work was thirty-seven feet. Tolman bested his opponents yesterday by pulling the shot 41 1/2 feet.

For the 220-yard dash, Noble (Chaffey), B. F. Tolman (Pomona) and Elliot (U. S. C.) were entered. Noble dropped out when within 200 yards of the tape, leaving Elliot and Tolman to finish. Elliot won by several feet, after running around almost the entire length of the course. Time 34 1/2.

Condit of Pomona was scratched in the running high jump, and Tolman jumped in his stead. He was opposed by Cutler (Chaffey) and Martin (U.S.C.) He won the event by clearing the stick at a height of 4.22 feet.

Showmaker took the place of Phillips (Chaffey) in the one-mile bicycle race. Other starters were Smith (Pomona) and Peck (U.S.C.) A limit of 1:40 was put on the race, the riders being paced by a tandem. The boys began to sport almost from the start, and kept up the pace to the end. No one looked in the race at any time, and the result was a beautiful finish between Showmaker and Smith, with the former a winner by a narrow margin; time 1:11 1/2.

The 200-yard dash was won very handsily by Robinson (U.S.C.) time 14 1/2 seconds. Nance of Pomona and Cutler of Chaffey were contestants with him in the event.

In the 15-pound hammer-throw, Alva Fuller (Chaffey) being the hammer 24 feet, beating the best previous record by 2 feet 14 inches. Tolman (Pomona) did very nearly as well, with a record yesterday of 24 1/2 feet.

Condit of Chaffey College carried off the honors in the pole-vault, making a record of 120 feet, the best previous record being 8 feet 7 inches. Blane (Pomona) and Martin (U.S.C.) represented their respective colleges in this event.

The best event on the card was the two-mile paced bicycle race, with Showmaker (Chaffey), Smith (Pomona) and Peck (U.S.C.) entered. A limit of 1:30 was put on the race, but a limit was not needed. The riders were on their mettle, and at the crack of the pistol started in the hottest race that the park track has seen for some time. The pace was so warm that on the fifth lap Peck dropped out, leaving Smith and Showmaker to fight it out. The latter kept the lead 1/2 mile within 100 yards of the tape, when Smith, by a magnificent spurt, overtook and passed him, making the race in the best time of 1:14 1/2. The best previous time made in this event was 1:20.

The 220-yard dash was a very pretty race, but was marred by a foul by Nance of Pomona. For this he was disqualified, though his breast touched the tape first. Edgerly (U.S.C.) was given the race, with Francis (Chaffey) second; time 21 1/2 seconds.

The last event on the card, a one-mile run, was a disappointment as the men made very poor time and lagged throughout the race. Noble (Chaffey), Yountess (Pomona) and Elliot (U.S.C.) were the runners. Noble quit on the fourth lap, and left Elliot and Yountess to finish the race. Elliot bested the man from Pomona, winning the race in the slow time of 5 min. 24 sec.
