

ANOTHER TRACK MEET.

U.S.C. to Contest With Polytechnic on the Cinder Path—Comstock Takes Rest.

U.S.C. will have another try-out Friday, when she will meet Poly High on Bovard field. The college men give Polytechnic full credit for the strength of a number of fine athletes.

The U.S.C. entry list for Friday is as follows:

The 100-yard dash—Parsons, Cooper, Shute, Thompson, Cooper and Cree.

The 220-yard dash—Parsons, Shute, Fuller, Cooper and Cree.

The 440-yard dash—Klitten, Snyder, Newmyre, Richard, Wirsching and Cree.

The 880-yard run—Mealy, Scott, Newmyre, Klitten.

The 120-yard high hurdles—Lennox, Comstock, Hollaway, Rickard, Montgomery, Thompson, Curl and Burek.

The 220-yard low hurdles—Lennox, Thompson, Rickard, Curl, Burek, Hollaway and Montgomery.

Shot put—Comstock, Shute, Richardson, Burek, Haigler and Carmichael.

Hammer throw—Haigler, Richardson, Burek, Sherwood, Carmichael and Miller.

High jump—Slatter, Munson, Montgomery, Curl, Richardson, Comstock, Haigler and Wirsching.

Pole vault—Montgomery, Wirsching, Comstock and Richardson.

Broad jump—Chandler, Richardson, Haigler, Slatter, Rickard and Curl.

Mile run—Nordhal, Estoppey, Cornwell, Reiche, Hummel, Maas, Schoeller, Hull, Hunter, L. Allen, Riley, Mealy, Scott, Klitten and Newmyre.

The Two-mile run—Garbutt, Allen, Estoppey and Cornwell.

The relay—Nordhal, Estoppey, Shute, Cooper, Klitten, Newmyre, Wirsching, Thompson, Lennox and Cree.

Coach Holmes thinks his team can win in the dashes without the use of Parsons, his crack sprinter, so it is very unlikely that Parsons will figure in this week's meet.

Comstock, another monogram man, has not been on the track this week and will not participate unless he recovers quickly from his fatigue of last week. He is in the country now, recuperating.
