

Stanford Easily Defeats the U. S. C. Track Team.

Methodists Have but Two Hours' Rest Off Train.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The University of Southern California track team was overwhelmingly defeated by the Stanford university, this morning, by the score of 104 to 24. The meet was well attended and the performances were good, though the Cardinal entries showed a tendency to lead, which precluded the making of any fast time. The Los Angeles men arrived this morning less than two hours before the meet and so were in no condition for severe competition.

However, they were entirely out-classed by the Stanford athletes, who took things easily and still piled up an enormous number of points. The weather was rather warm and sultry with the breeze blowing against the runners on the trackway.

The only first place which fell to the lot of the visitors was taken by Richardson in the hammer throw, with a toss of 120 ft. 5 in. This versatile athlete also took second in the pole and third in the high jump. Thompson, the Methodist crack sprinter, had a hard fight for third in the hundred, but secured second place in the 220 after an injured leg forced Reed, Stanford's best man, out of the race. Lennox, who was expected to do something in the hurdles, took second over the high sticks and third in the 220 hurdles. Trotter secured one point in the shot put, with a toss of thirty-seven feet.

Holman of Stanford won both sprints with ease, making good time against the wind in both events. Reed injured his leg in the hundred near the finish, and barely secured second place.

Holman's time of 22 2-5 in the 220 is his best performance this year. Horton won hurdles by a good margin clearing the sticks in good form. His time of 25 4-5 in the low hurdles was too fast for the field, who were a full hurdle behind with Lennox fighting hard for second from Gregg. In the 120-yard hurdles Lennox won second from Morris in the final sprint. The other track events were walkways for the Cardinal entries and the visitors were shut out without a point.

WINNERS BY A FOOT.

Brown won the quarter from Wyman by scarce a foot in 52 3-4 with Miller, who ran a close third with an injured ankle. There was a large field in the half which started at a fast pace, led out by Maudrell and Bradford. The pace soon left the U.S.C. entry hopelessly behind and although the time promised to be near the record, the Stanford runners slowed up and trotted across six abreast in 2:07. In the mile Maudrell led all the way, the three Stanford men lying in 4:51 2-5 after loafing almost a lap. Scott was a bad fourth, sweet loafed all the way in the two mile, slowing up for the other Stanford runners at the finish. Garbutt was sever in the running.

The Los Angeles athletes fared little better in the field, though Richardson's throw of 120 ft. 5 in. with the hammer prevented a shut-out in first places. Horton was in good form in the shot put and was consistent at 44 feet, winning with a toss of 46 ft. 5 in. Vandervoort showed his old time form in the broad, which he won at 26 ft. 10 1/2 in. Meddick and Bellah taking the other places. Richardson of U.S.C. did not seem up to form in the high and could not clear 5 ft. 6 in.

Capt. Langgan did not compete in the pole vault, which went to Bellah at 11 feet 2 inches, after a hard fight with Richardson, who failed at 12 feet. The Stanford relay team, composed of Miller, Hussey, Wyman and Brown, won the mile relay in 3:28 4-5, defeating the southerners' team of Kohl, Pooker, Nordahl and Burek, by over thirty yards.

The race was exciting, but not in doubt after the second lap. Brown covered the last lap in 9:50 2-5.
