

KELLY AND DREW BADLY HURT IN BERKELEY MEET.

California Took First Honors — World's Record for High Jump Beaten by Dr. E. J. Beeson—Coast Two-Mile Mark Twice Lowered — Kelly Equals His Record—Drew's Wonderful Time.

BY HOMER HAVERMALE.

BERKELEY, May 2.—The most closely-contested conference meet since the inauguration of the affair into Pacific Coast athletics was run off today on the California oval.

California took first honors when Stanford was disqualified for fouling in the relay. The five points of this event lifted the Blue and Gold score from 38 to 43, leaving the Cardinal with 41.

U.S.C. placed third with a score of 15.

Two of the star athletes of U.S.C. sustained injuries which will drop them off of the cinders for weeks. Drew, in making a 9 4-5s. dash in the 100, pulled a tendon. He states that it will be fully five weeks before he will be able to run.

Kelly received a terrific fall in the low hurdle race. His speed as he left the sharp curve toward the straight-away was so great as to cause him to plunge headlong into the cinders. The flesh of his knees was stripped to the bone, and his shoulder was badly cut. Manager Bovard says that with skillful attention he can be put into shape to compete in the A.A.U. meet this summer, but that track work before that time will be impossible.

RECORDS CRACKED.

In the way of lowered records and fast time, the meet was a sensation from the start of the first race.

Beeson, former California high-jumper, and now entered from the Olympic Club, broke the world's record in this event. He sailed over the bar at 6ft. 7 5-8in. Closer measurements gave the height as 6ft. 7 5-16in. It is probable that the lower record will stand. Horine, former world record holder at 6ft. 7in., was jumping against Beeson when the record was smashed.

The Coast record for the two-mile underwent a peculiar experience this afternoon, that of being twice broken. Hobgood, from Oregon Agriculture College, covered the distance in the speedy time of 9m. 37 1-5s. The bleachers gave him a tremendous hand, but when Milard of the Olympic Club a few minutes later in a special race made the same trip in 9m. and 34s. flat, noise and hats filled the air in big-game style.

DREW AND KELLY.

Drew and Kelly both made times that anywhere except in an aggregation of world-record holders would have caused open-mouthed amazement.

Both of these men and Ward, who placed second to Kelly in the high sticks, reached Berkeley this morning, after a five-days' trip from the East.

Drew tore down the hundred in 9 4-5 seconds, but it was a time earned only at the expense of an injured tendon. Kelly equalled his world record made last year at the conference meet in the high hurdles. His time was 15 seconds flat. Ward surprised the bleachers by pressing Kelly for first, and by defeating Murray of Stanford. Borgstrom, after clearing 12 feet 6 inches in the pole vault, attempted a 13-foot vault. Two of his jumps brought the bleachers to their feet with anticipation, but each time the tall Southerner jounced the bar from the standards.

KIRKPATRICK LEADS.

When Kelly took his fall in the low sticks, Kirkpatrick of Oxy secured the lead. Down the straight-away and until the last barrier was reached, he and Murray were neck to neck. Kirkpatrick got over the last obstacle first and looked a sure first, but Murray overhauled the Tiger in the sprint for the tape and took the coveted five spot. U.S.C. brought the initial jolt to the score board by annexing thirteen points in the first two events, the hundred and high hurdles.

The mile shattered points widely and for a time the meet might have belonged to any one, but with the coming through of Stanford and California for the entire nine points in the 440, the affair settled down to a duel between the Cardinal and the Blue and Gold for first honors. Time and time the score stood at a tie or with but a few points difference. Stanford made up the loss of a complete shut out in the high jump and hammer throw, by wresting all of the big points in the shot and pole vault. Failure of the Cards to place in the broad jump did not alleviate the situation which at the relay gave Stanford 41 and California 38.

Both rooting sections had wrought themselves into a semi-frenzy with the previous uncertainty and at the gun for the four-man event the mufflers were kicked off by an explosion of under-graduate noise that shook the stands.

Evidently the fighting spirit of the rooters caught the men, for fouls of a most apparent nature were committed. Both Stanton and Crabbe were jostled by the Cardinal runners, who caused the California men to lose ground and eventually lose the race. Inspectors awarded the race to California and the addition of five points brought victory to the Bears.

Score: California, 43; Stanford, 41; U.S.C., 15; O.A.C., 11; U.W., 9; Santa Clara, 3; U. of O., 3; Occidental, 3; Nevada, 3.

California took the relay race on a foul.

SHOOTING NOTES.

Trapshooters are to be busy during the next two weeks, a trio of events claiming their attention in Southern California, with over $3000 in prizes waiting upon their skill.

Modesto holds the boards this week, with a three-day contest, commencing tomorrow, wherein $1200 added money and $750 in prizes are hung up.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, May 11-13, the San Diego Gun Club is to hold a bluerock tournament with $1000 added money in a programme calculated to afford all western experts full opportunity showing in the distribution of prizes.

Many local triggermen are entered for this competition, which is to be immediately paired by the Los Angeles Gun Club on its Venice grounds, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, May 15-17.

Practically the same programme is announced for the two competitions, $1000 being added at Venice, and provisions made for entertaining all San Diego competitors in a sort of return engagement.

Harry Hoyt, who has just returned from a trip through the southern district, reports active interest in shooting and sportsmen enjoying good times.

Nearly 1100 gun clubs formed in 1914, is the prediction of the Trapshooters' Bureau, a national organization with headquarters at Philadelphia. These figures would bring the number of gun clubs in the United States up to almost 4000, there having been 2674 in existence last year.

The Wilmington Trapshooting Club, with a membership of 700, is rated as the largest in the world, and has never met defeat on its home grounds, though carrying a pennant representing the championship of seven States.
