Quarter.

The tryout meet, held yesterday preparatory to the Far Western track and field championships at San Diego August 19, was, in a way, a failure, and that was in the number of athletes that turned out for the meet. However, those that did make an appearance put hope into the hearts of the lovers of track and those who are hoping to see the south carry off the honors in the San Diego meet.

Yesterday's meet was totally devoid of all the great champions, such as Kelly, Drew and Thomson. However, these men have kept in close touch with the officials and have been working to get into condition, so there is nothing to worry about from that source. Of the three, Fred Kelly can at least say that he tried to be at the meet. He got away from the training camp at Monterey early and took the first train for the south. After the meet was all over and the grounds-keeper was beginning to lock up, along came Fred Kelly, hoping that the meet would not be all over before he got there. Kelly is back to stay and will train daily for the meet.

The meet started off with Walt Sturges winning the mile in easy style. His brother Det was out to see what he could do and pulled himself into second place, but Det will not be able to go to San Diego for the meet, so that it moves the other runners up a notch.

The quarter-mile turned out to be the real race of the day. Pa Gates, captain of the Southern California team, took the lead from Anderson and Beal. On the final stretch Beal pulled up and passed Anderson by a hair and came within a yard of the flying Gates.

As a result of the tryout meet, the team picked to represent Southern California at San Diego will include the following athletes: Beverly Anderson (L.A.A.C.), javelin throw and 440-yard dash; C. M. Nielson, broad jump and 440-dash; Ernest Plavan (L.A.A.C.), broad jump; Walt Sturges (Pomona,) mile run; F. H. Greve (L.A.A.C.), pole vault; Fred Kelly (L.A.A.C.), both hurdles; Howard Drew (L.A.A.C.), 100-yard dash and 220-yard dash; Meredith House (Stanford,) 220-yard hurdles; Ray Adkinson (Pomona,) half-mile run; Luther Nichols (U.C.), high jump, broad jump and pole vault; E. M. Bonnett (L.A.A.C.), half-mile run; W. H. Collins (L.A.A.C.), high jump; Win Wheatley (Stanford,) high jump and broad jump; Marian Smith (U.S.C.), discus throw; Karl Heberlein (Manual Arts,) javelin throw; James Markle (Stanford,) half-mile; Verle Murray (Whittier,) high and low hurdles; Earl Thomson (U.S.C.), 120-yard hurdles, 220-yard hurdles and high jump; George Conn (L.A.A.C.), 100-yard dash and 440-yard dash; Pete Bagnard (L.A.A.C.), shot put and discus throw; Al Gates (L.A.A.C.), 440-yard dash; Harold Cook (Manual Arts,) mile run; Charles Paddock (Pasadena High,) 100-yard dash; D. H. Richardson (U.C.), hammer throw and discus throw; Martin Zolle (L.A.A.C.), javelin throw; George Greve (L.A.A.C.), mile run; Clarence Bean (L.A.A.C.), pole vault; Fred Watkins (L.A.A.C.), high jump and pole vault; Beal (Stanford,) 440-yard dash; George Woods (Manual Arts,) 100-yard dash; S. Smith (Manual Arts,) 440-yard hurdles; Wallace (Pomona,) 880-yard run; Harley Earl, hammer throw.

It is practically settled that the University of Washington, Seattle, will row at the eastern intercollegiate regatta on the Hudson next June and with the presence there of the champion Syracuse, Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania eights enough will contest to insure the success of the regatta.

Duluth Boat Club will hold the annual national rowing regatta August 11 and 12 and will care for visiting oarsmen at their clubhouse.
