

LOCAL ATHLETES CARRY AWAY LOTS OF HONORS.

Bagnard of the L.A.A.C. Places in Three Events and Thompson of U.S.C. Also Shows Considerable Versatility—Crippen Spills in the Mile While Running in Second Place—Frank Sloman is Beaten.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CORVALLIS (Or.) April 1.—In probably the greatest track and field meet ever held in track history of the Northwest, Californians again to a large degree in the Far Western meet today carried off honors, the high point winner individually being the great Fred Kelly of Los Angeles, who took alone twenty of the twenty-nine points won by the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

THE POINTS.

Oregon Agricultural College, with forty points, won first place. Oregon, with thirty, points, nosed into second place by winning the javelin; Los Angeles was close third, with twenty-nine. Other standings were Multnomah, twenty-one; University of Southern California, thirteen; Willamette, six; Idaho, five; unattached, five; Olympic, three; Columbia, three.

Kelly won first place in the 80-yard dash, 80-yard hurdle, 220 dash and the broad jump, establishing new records in the first three. The record in the 220-yard dash cuts the world's record of Maurer, made at Madison Square Garden in 1910, from 23 1-5 to 23 flat.

Most of the teams left for their homes as soon as the meet was finished. O. A. C. won the loving cup for winning the mile relay and medals were awarded each to first, second and third place men. Fourth place men received honorable mention.

INTERESTING.

From the time the first heat in the 80-yard dash opened until the relay was completed but few dull moments were in evidence. The only time the spectators became a little restless was during the five-mile run.

In the 880-yard run, Ralph Coleman of Oregon Agricultural College nosed out Clarence Beebo, the University of Southern California wonder, in the last forty yards of the race. Coleman finished in 2m 4 4-5 s.

George Dewey ran a beautiful race in the mile event. The wearer of the winged "M" worried about nothing, even though he had Reid Crippen of the University of Southern California as a candidate for first honors.

TOUGH LUCK.

Dewey was about five yards to the good on the last lap, but just before the final round came up, Crippen was downed in his tracks near the turn. He was set back a few yards, but continued gamely, finishing fourth. It is doubtful whether he could have gained anything on the Multnomah athlete, for Dewey was stretching out with apparent ease.

Four men started in the 220-yard low hurdles, but only three were given places. Walter Hummell, captain of the Multnomah, representative of Portland, broke the tape in 27 2-5s. He was closely followed by Robert Damon of Oregon Aggies, while Earl Thompson had to be contented with third honors for the University of Southern California.

Frank Sloman, wearing the colors of the Olympic Club, San Francisco, was outclassed in the 440-yard classic by Capt. Wallace Kadderly of the Corvallis institution. As soon as the gun was fired Kadderly jumped to the lead and never was headed. Sloman slowed up for second honors, and two former Washington High School boys broke into the score sheet.

UNEXPECTED.

Willamette University of Salem, Or., sprang a "small" surprise by taking second and third in the 80-yard dash. B. Ford went next to Fred Kelly and B. Small followed his team-mate, with Sam Morrison of Idaho fourth.

First place in the shot put was awarded to Bagnard, the Los Angeles Athletic Club giant. He heaved the 16-pound ball 43ft. 11in. with "Rook" Casey of Oregon Aggies, second, a little more than a foot and a half behind the leader. George Philbrook, well-known Olympic games athlete, tried a "come-back" stunt with Multnomah Club and he made good by securing third honors in the shot and second in the discus.

Harry Cole, Oregon Aggies, won the discus with a shove of 133ft. 7 1/2 in. His world's indoor record of 137ft. 5in., made last year, was beaten by better than three feet in an exhibition throw. It will not count as a new mark.

HERO KELLY.

Fred Kelly was in a class by himself. There was no chance to outshine him. The Los Angeles star performer was a whole track meet in himself and drew rounds and rounds of applause as he ran through the dashes with the ease of a greyhound running away from a pack of ordinary canines. His stride was like that of old, his start was on the shot of the gun and he broke the tape at the close of the race, outdistancing his nearest man by several feet in each event.

It was conceded that Kelly would carry off the honors in the 80 and 220-yard dashes, but it was not thought that he would make the performance he did in breaking records at will. It was an ideal day, just the kind Kelly said he liked. The modest Los Angeles athlete carried his honors of the day as though they were of ordinary occurrence.

All you can say for him is that he so far outshone individually all entrants in the big meet that it was the rarest sport to see the great athlete perform. California still is supreme individually on the track.
