FRANKLIN FIELD, PHILADELPHIA (Pa.) May 28.

(AP)—A small but powerful band of twelve stalwart athletes swept Leland Stanford University to its first intercollegiate A.A.A.A. track-and-field championship today but it remained for an agile young man from Dubuque, Iowa, to supply the chief thrills of one of the most spectacular meets the East has ever seen.

OREGON AGGIE BALL TEAM TRIMS HUSKIES

LONGVIEW (Wash.) May 28 (AP)—Oregon Agricultural College defeated the University of Washington, 4 to 3, here today, in a baseball game to decide the championship of the western division of the northern section of the Coast Conference.

KANE BEATS WATSON
EL PASO, May 28 (AP)—Jack Kane of Denver won the referee's decision over Jete Watson of Los Angeles in a twelve-round bout at Fort Bliss tonight. Both are lightweights.

SABIN CARR

Sabin Carr of Yale, as well as Dubuque, lifted himself to international fame by clearing 14ft. in the pole vault and a 14-ft. 6-in. in the world's record held by the slim Norwegian, Charlie Hoff, who is now a professional. It was only by a scant margin that Carr eclipsed Hoff's figure of 13ft. 11 in. 10-in., set in Finland 120 years ago, but it was enough to clinch his rank as the world's greatest vaulter. The Yale youth also holds the indoor record of 13ft. 9 1-2 in.

BARNES SECOND
Carr needed to outdo himself to successfully defend his intercollegiate title as well as accomplish what has been the goal of all vaulters for years, for he was extended all the way by Lee Barnes of Southern California, the Olympic champion. Leaving Carr's former I.C.A.A. record of 13ft. 20 in. far behind, Barnes kept pace with the Yale ace up to 12ft. 8 1-2 in., but that was his limit.

Four records fell altogether as Stanford's squad, in workmanlike fashion, went about the task of piling up their winning total of 36 1-2 points, enough to decisively outstrip all rivals and displace Southern California as the holder of the team trophy.

Carr's was the only world's record, but intercollegiate marks were shattered in javelin by Creth Hines of Georgetown, with a heave of 209ft. 7 5-8 in., by Alfred Bates of Penn State in the broad jump, with a leap of 24ft. 8 1-2 in., and by Charles Borah, Southern California dash, who ran the 220-yard dash in 20.20, to complete a sweep of the sprints, the only double triumph of the finals.

Stanford, although providing few of the individual fireworks, had the balanced strength in the field events to withstand all upsets and beat off all challenges. The Cardinals captured only one first place, that by "Bill" Hoffman in the discus throw, but they scored heavily in seven other events—mile run, high hurdles, pole vault, javelin, broad jump, high jump and shot put—to reach their total of 36 1-2 points, the highest winning mark since 1922.

TROJANS FOURTH
Penn State's sturdy squad, leading the eastern defense, captured three first places and was runner-up to Stanford with 27 points. Yale, scoring in seven events, amassed 23½ points, just enough to nose out the two-time champions, Southern California, which finished fourth with 22.

These four stood out well above the rest of the field of twenty-one colleges that got into the point-scoring column. Dartmouth finished 17th with 18 points and Georgetown sixth with 18 points, leading 17th other aggregations as California with 10½; Syracuse with 10; Cornell and Pennsylvania with 8 each.

Stanford's victory marked the sixth time in seven years that the Far West has swept off with the championship.

No swift was the pace that only one of the five 1928 champions who entered the fray managed to come out again on top. Carr was the exception as King of Stanford in the high jump, Dowding of Georgetown in the broad jump, Cook of Syracuse in the quarter-mile and "Red" Haggerty of Harvard in the mile gave way to new title-holders.

Haggerty met a tragic defeat in the mile, staggering off the track in a state of collapse within 100 yards of the finish after keeping pace with "Bill" Cox, the winner, for three and a half of the four laps.

BORAH WINS TWO
King finished in a tie for second place in the high jump, outstripped by Maynard of Dartmouth, while Cook, finishing fourth, saw his 440-yard crown go to the slim Michigan State star, Fred Alderman. Dowding passed from the broad-jump field the day before.

Borah registered a brace of spectacular victories to crown himself sprint king. He flashed home first in the 100 in the fast time of 9 8-100, easily shaking off Paulsen of Yale, then came back an hour later to run away with the 220 in the record time of 20 9-100, leading Berthelmeier of Penn State by eight yards and Paulsen by ten.

Shot—Win by Gerde (California), 127, 11½; Barnes (Stanford), 120, 11½; Fjodlock (Syracuse), 110, 11½; Adams (Harvard), 100, 11½; Loring (Pennsylvania), 100, 11½.
100-yard dash, outstrip, top last—Wheeler (Stanford), 20.20; Steinbruner (Penn State), 20.20; Fjodlock (Syracuse), 20.20; Alderman (Michigan State), 20.20; Maynard (Dartmouth), 20.20; Carr (Yale), 20.20; Hines (Georgetown), 20.20; Barnes (Southern California), 20.20; Gerkin (California), 20.20; Ide (Penn State), 20.20.
