

TROJAN FROSH VICTORS AS FAIRFAX MILER SPARKLES

The Trojan frosh defeated Fairfax High School, 71 2-3 to 32 1-3, in a practice meet on Bovard Field yesterday.

but it was the Colonial athletes who furnished all the excitement of the day.

Coach H a l Lovejoy, former Trojan half-miler, uncovered a couple of athletes who will give anybody a n d everybody in the Minor City League all kinds of competition when the time young Herb Carlson, an unknown, who ran the first mile of his career yesterday and galloped it in 4m. 47 2-5s. for a new school record. Cliff Halstead, former Sacramento High star, won the event for the frosh but it was Carlson who got all the cheers. Two weeks ago Lovejoy was looking over some of his gym classes and spying a barrel-chested young man demanded to know why he wasn't out for track. The youth admitted he had gone some athletics but it was all tennis, he being the minor league champion these past two years and a semifinalist in the recent city championships.

Lovejoy induced him to report for track and with a week's training he won the 3-4-mile event in the interclass meet.
