

Romans Defeat Trojan Frosh

Southern California's freshman track team, still victoryless, bowed to L. A. High yesterday on Bovard Field, 55 to 49, thereby coming closest to a win so far this season. The Romans won by taking the eight-man mile relay. Actually, a Trojan team won, but the S.C. octet included Art Woessner and Vic Williams in the line-up, and naturally it didn't count. The Trobables, frantically searching for a sprinter, yanked Lonnie Hood out of the broad jump, and he won both the jump and the century. Results:
