

Trojan Frosh Upset Covina

Led by Paul Summers, versatile Trojabe athlete, who collected two firsts and a second, the University of Southern California freshman track and field squad defeated Coach Oak Pendleton's Covina Colts by a 73-to-40 score in a practice meet held yesterday afternoon on Bovard Field.

The feature race of the day was the 440-yard dash, which resulted in a tie between "Stewie" Neely of the Colts and Cassin of the frosh. The time of 51.2s., was a new Covina school record. Neely also won the 100 and ran a lap in the relay for a full afternoon's workout.
