

Abbott Stars in Troy Win

James Abbott, red-haired Trojan freshman sprint sensation, may not run in the A.A.U. relays Saturday at Long Beach. Abbott pulled up lame running a 220 against Hoover High yesterday afternoon. Leading the field by ten yards Abbott felt a leg-muscle cramp approximately seventy-five yards from the finish. He immediately slowed up and coasted across the tape to win the race in 22.1s. He had previously won the 100 in 10.2s.

The freshman team barely nosed out the strong Hoover squad, 59-54. The meet was staged on the Hoover oval.
