

Cameraman Catches Finish of a "Century of Progress"

Jesse Owens, Ohio State's sensational one-man track team, is shown winning his heat of the 100-yard dash yesterday in the N.C.A.A. trials at Berkeley. Owens also qualified in the 220-yard dash, low hurdles and broad jump and may win forty points for Ohio State in the finals today. His time was 9.7s.

The judges had to wait to see the movies to determine the other places. Left to right: Neugass (Tulane,) Owens (Ohio State, Boone (Southern California,) Wallender (Texas) and Collier (Indiana.)
