

Upon These Sturdy Arms and Legs Will Rest Troy's Chance for I.C.4-A. Track Title

Here are seventeen of the twenty track and field athletes who left last night on the Espee for Cambridge, Mass., where next week-end the I.C.4-A. cinder classic will be staged. From left to right; Foy Draper, 200 meters; Francis Benevidez, 1500 meters; Marvin Crawford, broad jump; Paul Jungkeit, broad jump; Ross Bush, 800 meters; Ed Hall, low hurdles; Al Olson, broad jump; Norman Paul, low hurdles; James Cassin, 400 meters; George Boone, 100 meters; John McCarthy, 400 meters; Al Fitch, 200 meters; Earl Meadows, pole vault; Randall Spicer, high jump; Bill Sefton, pole vault; Ken Carpenter, discus and Gil Strother, low hurdles; Three others not in the picture include Phil Cope, high hurdles; Roy Staley, high hurdles and Ray Cartwright, 800 meters. Before leaving last night, Dean Cromwell, Trojan coach, expressed confidence of winning the I.C.4-A. title.