Troy's Smallest Athlete, Capt. Foy Draper, Was the Day's Biggest Point Winner

TALLEY　　VOIGHT　　BOONE　　DEAN　　DRAPER　　KNEUBUHL

The judges had to hold a powwow before they picked diminutive Foy Draper a winner over Stanford's Ray Dean while some of the audience will never agree that Talley beat Boone for third place as the judges finally decided. Draper was the only double winner of the day, taking both sprints.

(AP) photo