

Bids for Olympic Games Berth in High Jump

Delos Thurber, sophomore at the University of Southern California, is seen here in a series of "Miracle Eye" photos during his high-jumping activities at Harvard Field. Thurber has cleared 81. 82, and has his sights trained on a trip to Berlin. He competes Saturday against Fresno State at Fresno and is favored to win his pet event. Thurber formerly attended Glendale High School and was one of the best prep jumpers in the State. His uncle, Dr. Parkard Thurber, is a member of the Trojan medical staff. Eddie Kienholz coached young Thurber at Glendale.
