

Ross Bush Snips

Bovard Field Record

Ross Bush, sensational Trojan distance spike star, ran the mile in 4m. 18.5s. to establish a new Bovard Field track record in an informal interclass meet held on the Trojan practice cinder-path yesterday afternoon. The old record was set by Cliff Halstead in 1932. Bill Sefton competing as a senior and Loring Day as a junior tied in the pole vault at 13ft. 9in. The juniors copped the meet.

Bush will entrain for Portland this week to compete in the Hill Military Academy meet against such stellar lights as Glen Cunningham, Norman Bright and Gene Venzke. The meet will be held next Saturday.