

HISTORY IS MADE IN THE AIR---BY BILL SEFTON

Here is Bill Sefton, captain of the Trojan track-and-field team, caught in the act of clearing 14ft. 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. for his new world's record in the pole vault during yesterday's meet with California at the Coliseum. Sefton made the hitherto-unexplored altitude on his third and last try.

Associated Press photo by Frank Ellen