tonight rested unchallenged in the possession of the Univer-sity of Southern California, publicly introduced to 25,000 spectators at the seventeenth annual national collegiate meet today as the greatest team in the world. Scoring in nine of the fourteen events, although winning only two individual championships. the Trojans amassed 69% points to retain the team title for the fourth consecutive year. It was the first time in the history of the meet that one team has won four consecutive years. Stanford finished second with 38 points. THREE RECORDS are: (1.) (1.) A new national collegiate record for the mile by Louis Zamperini of Southern Califor Louis nia, who beat Charles Fenske of Wisconsin, recognized as the nation's outstanding miler, in 4m. 8.3s.

Southern California's flashing victory featured a meet which opened and closed with recordbreaking performances.

(2.) New of 14 national collegiate record of 14s, for the 120-yard high hurdles, established in Fri-day's preliminaries by Fred Wolcott, sensational sophomore from

Rice Institute.

(3.) New national collegiate two-mile record of 9m. 11½s., established by Walter Mehl of Wisconsin in beating the defending champion and record holder. Greg Rice of Notre Dame, by inches in the outstanding race of

HIGH-JUMP MARK

(4.) New national collegiate record of 6ft, 8% in, in the high jump by Dave Albritton of Ohio State and Gil Cruter of Colorado, the defending champions, who brought the meet to a dramatic ly failing in an close by narrowly set ecord of 6ft. 10in. Southern California's record men accounted fourteen Zamperini places. After Zampe opened the meet with had his sensasational mile race, Erwin Miller cook second and Howard Bach-

Art Wrotnowski earned a point for sixth place in the discus, in addition to Loring Day's championship in the pole vault. Irving Howe tied for sec-ond and Ken Dills for third. Earl Vickery added 8 points with his second in the low hurdles and Delos Thurber finished in a tie for third in the high jump, going out on 6ft. 81/4 in. after tying the old record of 6ft, 7% in. He hurt his ankle on his second attempt at the great height.

FOUR DEFEND TITLES

Only four of the nine individual champions defending their titles were able to reaffirm their supremacy. In addition to Albritton and Cruter, who tied last year, they were John Woodruff, Pittsburgh's Olympic 800-meter record holder, and Pete Zagar of Stanford in the discus. Three others, Fenske in the mile, Rice in the two-mile and Vickery of Southern California in the 220yard low hurdles finished second.

Vickery was beaten by Wolcott, a tow-headed, muscular little fellow who has broken a record in every meet in which he has competed this year and who was described by Lawson Robertson, famous Olympic coach, as the outstanding athlete in the meet. Wolcott was the only double winner, his tremendous speed, which compensates for some lack of form in clearing the barriers, carrying him to easy

Vander Meer Takes Mound Against Bees

BOSTON, June 18. (AP) Against incalculable odds. Johnny Vander Meer, the Cincinnati Reds' spectacular 23-year-old southpaw, will go after his third consecutive no-hit, no-run pitching victory in the first game of a double-header against the Boston Bees here tomorrow. Bees' officials expect a crowd of close to 40,000 if the weather

Lowell Todd of San Jose State College, was unable to improve on his qualifying mark in the javelin throw ship to Nick Vukmanic of Penn State, finishing fourth. Other new champions, in addition to Zamperini, Vukmanic, Wolcott and Mehl are Loring

Day of Southern California in the pole vault, who cleared 14ft 2in.; Elmer Hackney of Kansas State, who added one foot and three inches to his qualifying effort to win the shot-put with a toss of 51ft. 81/2 in.; Bill Lace field of U.C.L.A., whose qualifying mark of 25ft, 1%in, in the broad jump stood up through today's finals; Mack Robinson of Oregon, who took the 220-yard dash in 21.3s. after Johnson's mishap. MALOTT WINS

Ray Malott of Stanford, who won the quarter mile in 46.8s., three-tenths of a second off the meet record, and also finished second to Robinson in the 220. and Mozele Ellerbe of Tuckegee, who defeated Southern Califor-nia's Adrian Talley and Ben Johnson in 9.7s. in the 100-yard dash

A study of motion pictures this morning revealed that Talley, the Trojans' star sprinter, had qualified in Friday's 100-yard dash trials.

Six men tied the former meet record in the high jump, Allen of Michigan, Thurber of Southern California, Burke of Marquette, Thompson of Xavier in New Orleans, Cruter and Albrit-ton. Thurber, Burke, Allen and Thompson went out at 6ft. 814 in., the winning height.
