Trojan Frosh Also Beaten in Three-Way Cinderpath Meeting

Herschel Smith's Compton Junior College aggregation scored its first victory in three years over the powerful Southern California Athletic Association yesterday afternoon on the Tartar cinderpath in a three-way trackfest with the Trojan frosh the third entrant. The Tartars piled up a surprising total of 66½ points. The Clubmen tallied 64 and the Trobables trailed with 31½.

Frank Skandera of the S.C.A.A. scored a double triumph by capturing the mile in 4m., 36.6s. and coming back later in the day to take the two-mile in 10m., 4s.

The meet was decided in the final event, the discus throw, with Charles Oakes of Compton vying for the places with the S.C.A.A. stars—Milton Tyre, ex-U.C.L.A. athlete; Leonard Holland, former Pacific Coast intercollegiate champ, and Don Winton.

Oakes hurled the discus 142ft., 11in., to nab second place and insure a Tartar victory. Tyre won the event with a toss of 144ft., 7½in. The summaries:
