

Trojan Trackmen Score 81-49 Win Over Stanford

STANFORD STADIUM, April 30 — Stanford's Indians dug in grimly to halt an SC track and field blitzkrieg from rumbling to a 100-point conquest in brisk twilight weather here today.

The Tribe's desperate stand held Coach Jess Mortensen's invading horde to an expected 81½-to-49½ triumph, but the inspired Home Brews supplied the surprises.

Troy won 10 events and performed as anticipated in most departments. The Stanfords nevertheless came through with a stunning double win in the sprints and in the high and broad jumps to give the home folks a break. SC chilled the throng more than the exasperatingly cold winds, however, by capering to a stirring finish in the mile relay to upset a favored Indian crew.

Fast Laps

Quarter-milers John Bradley and Verle Sorgen both tacked 48.6s. laps on the relay to hold off a determined Stanford rally.

Jim (Chief) Newcomb demonstrated the benefit of his new vitamin pill diet by jogging to a comfortable victory in the two-mile run, in 9m. 39.2s.

Stanford Coach Jack Weiershauser pulled a surprise caper of his own by calling on Bob Bryan, supposedly injured and out of the meet, in an attempt to split Troy's Jack Davis and Art Barnard in the low hurdles.

Bryan Falters

Bryan led Davis and Barnard over the first six flights but faltered and fell far back into a tie for third with Bob Mathias.

Bradley of SC took early command of the 440-yard dash, and Teammate Sam Nicholson finished neatly to score an unexpected second over the Tribe's Bill Storum. Bradley's time of 49s. was the best in the PCC this year.

On his second put, Trojan Parry O'Brien hoisted his best effort of 54ft. 6¼in. to win.
