

TROJANS TOP BYU; RAIN HALTS MEET

USC defeated Brigham Young, 47-21, in a rain-shortened track meet at the Coliseum Saturday afternoon.

When the deluge hit, only eight of the 17 events had been completed.

However, it held off long enough to enable Troy's Julio Marin to set a new school record in the mile run. Marin's time was 4:07, thus putting into discard the 4:07.7 achieved in 1950 by Jim Newcomb.
