Cougars, 84-61

PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI)—Washington State University Saturday spoiled the University of Southern California's first track and field venture onto WSU home ground, upsetting the Trojans, 84-61, in a dual meet here.

It marked USC's first track appearance here in its decades of dominating Pacific Coast Conference competition. The Trojans dumped the Cougars, 86-59, last year in Los Angeles.

Ten meet records—six by Washington State, four by USC—were set in the meet held in mild weather under cloudy skies.
