

USC's Miller Runs 9.4 100

Lennox Miller, USC sophomore from Jamaica, made his outdoor varsity debut Friday by beating teammates O. J. Simpson and Fred Kuller in a 9.4 100-yard dash during time trials at Cromwell Field.

The time was one-tenth off the school record held by Miller and Mel Patton. Simpson was timed in 9.5, Kuller in 9.6.

The three teamed with hurdler Earl McCulloch to run a 40.6 440 relay in tuning up for next week's Long Beach Relays. Other fast times were a 48.3 440 by Roger Wolff and a 21.1 220 and an estimated 14.1 high hurdles by McCulloch.
