

Kuller Upsets Miller in 9.3 as Troy Rolls

EUGENE — USC's defending national champions posted several world-class marks Saturday as they swept to a 92-53 victory over Oregon in a Pacific Eight dual meet.

Troy's Fred Kuller scored an upset in the 100-yard dash with a 9.3 decision over teammate Lennox Miller, who was runnerup in both NCAA dashes last year.

Kuller thus equaled his lifetime best, achieved in 1965 at Santa Ana College when he finished third in the National AAU.

Earl McCullough, despite a cold, took the high hurdles in 13.4, while Bob Seagren climbed 17-1½ in the pole vault and then failed in a world record try at 17-8.

Oregon, in sweeping the mile, had two men under 4-minutes as Dave Wilborn won it in 3:58.4, followed by Arne Kvalheim in 3:58.5.

Troy's Neil Duggan didn't compete because of a sore leg.
