

PORTLAND — Steve Prefontaine of the University of Oregon won the featured two-mile run in the Oregon Indoor track meet Saturday night, setting a meet record of 8:26.6, as Jim Ryun finished fourth.

Gerry Lindgren, former Washington State star, was second in 8:35.2, Rex Maddaford of Eastern New Mexico was third in 8:38.6, followed by world mile record holder Ryun in 8:47.2.

Al Feuerbach of the Pacific Coast Club won the shot put at 68-6 1/4. The toss wiped out the meet record set last year by Randy Matson at 68-2 3/4. Matson was not entered this year.

Feuerbach, who has defeated Matson the last four times they've met, started with a toss of 64-0 1/4. Then came puts of 68-0 1/4, 68-6 1/4 and 66-11.

Doug Lane of USC was second at 63-11.

Stan Whitley of the California International Track Club upset Bouncy Moore of the University of Oregon and Arnie Robinson of the U.S. Army in the long jump, winning with a leap of 25-5 1/2. Moore was second at 25-1 1/4 and Robinson third at 24-11.

Warren Edmonson of UCLA won the 60-yard dash in 6.2, edging Terry Lavery of the University of Washington, Leon Brown of USC and Eddie Hart of the Athens Track Club, in that order.

Mark Winzenried of Club West won the 1,000-yard run Saturday night. He barely held off Wes Smiley of the University of Oregon, winning in 2:09.8 to Smiley's 2:09.9.
