

Edmonson's 9.3 Leads UCLA; USC Also Rolls

Warren Edmonson set a school and stadium record of 9.3 in the 100-yard dash and helped UCLA set a stadium record of 3:07.4 in the mile relay Saturday as the Bruins routed Stanford, 100-45, at Stanford Stadium.

USC defeated California, 93-52, in the other half of the Pacific 8 double dual track meet.

The Bruins and Trojans, both undefeated, meet May 6 at the Coliseum. A comparison of Saturday's marks gives UCLA the edge, 76½-68½.

"I think the Trojans were under wraps," said UCLA coach Jim Bush. "They looked to be holding back. For instance, they didn't run Edesel Garrison in either the 440 or mile relay."

USC assistant coach Ken Matsuda said, "We couldn't get enthused. We just never got it going. Also, Cal did a fine job."

Edmonson's time bettered that of Trojans Don Quarrie and Willie Deckard who ran 9.4 and 9.5 in going 1-2 against Stanford.

"Edmonson looked great," said Bush, "especially since he had a false start against him. But he's not going to beat Quarrie and Deckard. They're too good."

Track Notes

In an earlier double dual at the Coliseum, matching USC against Stanford and UCLA against California, a comparison of best marks gave the Trojans a 96-49 edge over the Bruins . . . Bruin sprinter Steve Gibson pulled a muscle while leading the 220. "He's out of the USC meet," said Bush. However, Bush said that Gordon Peppers and Reggie Echols would return to duty in the dashes . . . The Bruins again dropped the baton on the first pass in the 440 relay and Bush said, "I'm real proud of that record. Look how I'm conserving those other three runners." How's he going to cure the problem? "I'm going to get a 12-foot pole with glue on the end," said Bush.
