

Williams Defeated by Crockett in 100; Waldrop 4th in Mile

BY HARLEY TINKHAM

Times Staff Writer

MODESTO—Ivory Crockett came to run. He was mad. Tony Waldrop came to run, too, but the lettering on his AAU jersey said, "Run For Fun."

After the angry Crockett stamped his claim on the world's fastest human title with a photo-finish victory over Steve Williams, the running-for-fun Waldrop lost his first mile of the year Saturday night in the 33rd California Relays at Modesto Junior College.

Crockett, off to his usual jackrabbit start, survived a determined rush by Williams to win the 100-yard dash in 9.2 seconds, two-tenths of a second behind the world-record 9 flat he established two weeks ago at Knoxville.

Waldrop, never making a move, finished a shocking fourth in the mile, won by Brigham Young junior Paul Cummings in 3:57.7. Oregon State's Hailu Ebba, three-time Pacific 8 champion, was second in 3:58.6.

Waldrop, fading badly on the last lap after trailing by 12 yards at three-quarters, was timed in 4:05.0. The North Carolina senior, who had run nine consecutive miles under 4 minutes, said:

"I just didn't have it. I knew it at the half-mile. I don't know why. I was pretty much up for the race but didn't have any drive. This will just give me far more incentive for the NCAA meet in two weeks. "I'm disappointed but it's great to see Paul run so well. I'm very happy for him."

It was a super track meet. Waldrop's failure notwithstanding.

John Powell of the Pacific Coast Club moved to No. 3 on the all-time discus list with a throw of 223 feet-4 inches and Arnie Robinson of the San Diego Track Club leaped to sixth on the all-time long jump list with a mark of 27-2 3/4.

Don Quarrie of Jamaica and the Beverly Hills Striders handed Williams his second setback of the night by winning the 200 in 20.2, only two-tenths behind the world record.

Maxie Parks of UCLA, starting 10 yards behind USC's Trevor Campbell on the anchor leg, ripped off a 44.9 anchor 440 to win the mile relay for the Bruins in 3:07.3.

Crockett, after his 100 victory, said, "Everybody in the world knew I ran 9 flat at Knoxville except the people in California. I don't know what I have to do to make people believe me."

He was referring to a Times story quoting track authority Dick Bank, who took a dim view of the timing by judges at Knoxville's Tom Black Stadium. He also was disturbed by stories that California Relays starter Tom Moore would cut him down to size by making sure he didn't get a flying start.

"But I'm not really mad at Tom," Crockett said, "because I think he was misquoted. And I'm ready to forget the Bank thing. I think it's just beautiful to win this race because Steve Williams is a world-class sprinter."

Crockett, 24, 5-7 and 145, was a two-time National AAU champion while representing Southern Illinois. He now represents the Philadelphia Pioneer Club while working as a marketing representative for IBM in Peoria, Ill.

How will he fare against Williams over the longer distance of 100 meters in this year's National AAU at UCLA June 21-22?

"One race at a time," he said. "Next week it's the Kennedy Games at Berkeley. Then I'll start thinking about the AAU."

Williams, the world's No. 1 sprinter in 1978, took the defeat calmly.

"Usually," he said, "I make some kind of dramatic move during a race but this time it wasn't there. I just kept inching away at him and I didn't quite make it."

Crockett had 3 yards on Williams at the 40-yard mark. Then the San Diego State runner finally got his long legs unspooled. Williams, at 6-3, has an 8-inch height advantage on Crockett and it was like the greyhound chasing the rabbit.

At 80 yards, it looked as if Williams would catch the little guy but Crockett refused to buckle and just did win the lean at the tape.

After it was over, and Crockett was walking back on the track, a group of Williams rooters in the crowd of 9,000 chanted, "Wait 'til next time."

Crockett laughed, raised his arm and shouted, "I'm No. 1, baby. When you're No. 1, then you can talk."

Later he turned serious and said, "I just hope God keeps my health and blesses my family. I've got a name now. Now I can go out and help the youth of America."
