

USC Wins 11 Events in Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP)—USC won 11 of 20 events in a track meet with the University of Hawaii here Saturday night.

Among the Hawaii winners was shotputter Terry Albritton with a toss of 69-1 $\frac{3}{4}$.

Hawaii participants came in first in five events, and the remainder were decisions in competitions between the Hawaii women's track team and the Esquimalt Track Club of British Columbia.

Among the USC winners was Tim Walker, who high jumped 6-10 $\frac{1}{4}$.

USC's Tom Andrews took first place in the 400-meter hurdles in 50.3.

Other USC winners included Fred Assef in the long jump, Mike Johnson in the 110 meter high hurdles, and Russ Rogers in the pole vault.