

USC Beats Arizona State, BYU in Track Triangular

TEMPE (AP)—Dave Omwansa won the 800-meter run to put USC in the lead for good Saturday in a triangular track and field meet with Arizona State and Brigham Young.

USC finished with a score of 76, followed by Arizona State 60, and Brigham Young 54. In dual scoring it was USC 79, ASU 62 and USC 88, BYU 55.

Omwansa, a Kenyan, ran the 800 meters in 1:50.5 to edge teammate Lloyd Johnson, who was clocked in the same time.

USC collected eight first places, with Tom Andrews and Clancy Edwards double winners. Andrews won the 110 high hurdles in 14.28 and the 400-meter intermediate hurdles in 49.66. Edwards won the 100 meters in 10.27 and the 200 in 20.63.

Brigham Young built an early lead, sweeping the 3,000-meter steeplechase behind Henry Marsh at 8:50.7, and winning the shotput and 1,500-meter run. Per Nilsson won the shot at 60-9 while teammate Doug Murdock won the 1,500 in 3:46.7.

Arizona State took the 440-yard relay in 39.33, but USC came back to win the mile relay in 3:09.1.

Arizona State scored two other first place finishes. Tony Darden won the 400 in 45.98 and Kyle Arney took the high jump with a leap of 7-2.

The Trojans were minus two performers, half-miler Rayfield Beaton and hurdler Mike Johnson, both with foot injuries. In the pole vault, Tom DiStanislaio passed until the bar reached 16 feet, then missed all three tries.
