

UCLA'S OWENS WINS IN 13.58

From Times Wire Services

Olympian James Owens of UCLA won the 110-meter high hurdles in 13.58, fastest time in the world this year, Saturday night in the 36th California Relays at Modesto.

UCLA freshman Greg Foster, who defeated Owens in the Pacific 8 championships last week, pulled up after coming off the blocks late.

Owens barely edged Washington's Robert Gaines who was clocked in 13.61.
