

Olympic champion Mac Wilkins came from behind on his last throw to win the discus at 219-7 Friday in the Martin Luther King Games at Stanford University.

John Powell, Olympic bronze medalist, was second at 217-11. Wilkins' throw was a stadium record.

Liu Yumuang of the Peoples Republic of China set a national record in the long jump with a winning leap of 26-0½. Only a quarter of an inch behind was Larry Doubledy of USC at 26-0¼.
